

2007 ASCE - EWRI ENVIRONMENTAL & WATER RESOURCES ENGINEERING STUDENT PAPER COMPETITION

A chance to develop leadership and presentation skills at the EWRI conference

Who?

Any member of a recognized ASCE student chapter may enter a paper that has not won a prize in any previous national competition.

The paper must be completed with minimal faculty involvement.

Two categories will be considered; graduate and undergraduate.

Great opportunity for CE students to work on research and resume building

What?

- ⇒ The Student Paper Competition is an annual event sponsored by the Environmental and Water Resources Institute of American Society of Civil Engineers
- ⇒ Any technical or editorial subject related to environmental/water resources is appropriate for this competition.
- ⇒ Original paper must be written by student alone.
- ⇒ Judging will be done by members of the ASCE EWRI Student Activities Council and engineers from industry

How?

- ⇒ ASCE conference format: single spaced, with an abstract < 200 words, 12 point font, 1 inch margins
- ⇒ Length: 6-8 pages (including figures and references), one-side, standard 8 ½ x 11 inch paper
- ⇒ Do not put your name or affiliation anywhere on the paper.
- ⇒ Only ASCE student chapter members are eligible. Your ASCE faculty advisor must complete an original paper copy of eligibility form with each paper.
- ⇒ http://www.ewrinstitute.org/committees/ewri_studacts.cfm for more information

When?

- ⇒ Electronic version (MS WORD format) and advisor's form must be received by January 12, 2007 at Leonard@cee.uah.edu
- ⇒ Winners will be notified by February 2, 2007!

AWARDS

Fame – Qualify to make a technical presentation at the EWRI congress and publish your paper in the congress proceedings

Fortune – $1,000 Grand Prize, 1st Place $500, 2nd Place $250, 3rd Place $125

Travel – Present your paper at the World Water and Environmental Resources Congress in Tampa, Florida, May 15 - 19, 2007. ($500 travel reimbursement for up to four winners)

Sponsored by EWRI Student and New Professional Activities Council

STUDENT CHAPTERS → PLEASE POST THIS NOTICE!!!